1 Holiness Song.

BY WALTER MOORE.

Tune:—"I'm your lamp and be ready."

All glory to the bleeding Lamb,
The way to heaven so straight and plain,
It is none need or thorn.

chorus.

I have been to Jesus, I have been to Jesus,
I have been to Jesus, for the cleansing power.

If we to Christ our sins confess,
He'll cleanse from all unrighteousness,
And free us from all sin.

His precious blood has washed me
white,
And now for me to live in Christ,
Heaven's life to give.

O Lord I will declare Thy power
To keep me holy every day,
While I on earth remain.

And when my earthly home falls
down,
I'm sure of one not made with hands,
Eternal in the heaven above.

2 The Crowning Day.

BY M. J. SMITH, CHICAGO.

Tune:—"There'll be no more sorrow
there."

When fighting days are o'er,
I'll by my armor down,
My uniform will then be changed,
I'll wear a robe and crown.

chorus.

My uniform changed will be;
At the shining hour of the peachy
gate,
There's a robe and a crown for me.

My comrades, watch and pray,
And fight the battle through;
If you lose win and conquer on,
There's a robe and a crown for you.

Come who will volunteer
And join this happy throng,
King Jesus He will soon appear,
To give you a "Welcome Home."

3 I Couldn't, I Wouldn't.

When first I saw the Army,
As it came into our town,
Their appearance did not alarm me,
Still I followed them around;
To hear them speak and sing,
It seemed to me that it was
Was such a funny thing.

chorus.

But I couldn't, I wouldn't
And I couldn't stay away from them;
I couldn't, I wouldn't stay away.

The next night I was back again
In my accustomed place,
For to hear them sing the anthems
Was to me quite a treat;
They said "Young man, are you sane?"

I answered them quite short,
For they could not make me believe
In anything of the sort.

They said "Prepare for judgment
For you will have to go to heaven
Unless you have been saved;
I thought of this for several days,
And I've decided all a while,
I know that if I want to ball,
I'll have myself to thank."

4 A Song of Consolation.

BY STAFF-SERGEANT, MONTREAL, ENGLAND.

Tune:—"The precious blood is flowing o'er my heart." "Drama Band Journal," No. 11: "Favourite Songs,"
No. 1.

"Oh soldier! hard pressed in the fight—
(Tenderly your Saviour's speaking)
"You've not yet been beyond my sight,
I'm always close at hand!"

"My strength and grace are always at
thy side,
Through all the darkest Thine will be
my guide,
Or, the soldier may sing:
Thy strength and grace are always at
my side,
Thou wilt never, never leave me;
Through all the darkest Thine will be
my guide,
And give me victory.

"I know your heart is often grieved—
(The loving Saviour speaking)
"By His love never have I been
deceived—
I'm always close at hand!"

"My wisdom plans out all your days—
(Listen to the Saviour speaking)
"My hand shall open all your ways—
I'm always close at hand!"

While things went on in this manner
And I couldn't find no peace,
It seemed that I was all astray
And could not rest at ease;
But when my comrades made a start
I took away my fear,
And put new courage in my heart,
And so you see I'm here.

5 There's a Better Day Coming.

BY ALICE MORTON.

Tune:—"The girl I left behind me."

"One night I came to Jesus, and let
the devil go,
He did not say I was too vile, or cast
me out, oh no;
Praise God, He nicely saved me through
and through,
And what the devil tempts me, this is
all I have to do.

"I know your heart is often grieved—
(The loving Saviour speaking)
"By His love never have I been
deceived—
I'm always close at hand!"

"My strength and grace are always at
thy side,
Through all the darkest Thine will be
my guide,
Or, the soldier may sing:
Thy strength and grace are always at
my side,
Thou wilt never, never leave me;
Through all the darkest Thine will be
my guide,
And give me victory.

"I know your heart is often grieved—
(The loving Saviour speaking)
"By His love never have I been
deceived—
I'm always close at hand!"

"My wisdom plans out all your days—
(Listen to the Saviour speaking)
"My hand shall open all your ways—
I'm always close at hand!"

"When through the host of hell you
fight,
(The conquering Saviour speaking)
"My power shall put them all to flight,
I'm always close at hand!"

"When heavy burdens on these weigh
(The Mighty Saviour speaking)
"My strength I'll give thee day by
day,
I'm always close at hand!"

6 I'll Be True.

BY CAPT. W.

Tune:—"There is a sweet rest, Heaven."

Though tough may be the fighting,
And hard be my lot,
Yet what a mighty Saviour and keeper
I have got,
I'll serve Him without fearing,
And this song shall be,
Whatever my fate, Lord keep me
true to Thee.

chorus.

I'll be true to Thee,
I'll be true to Thee,
What e'er may befall, I shall surely conquer all,
If you only true to Thee.

Though dark should be my pathway,
And dark be my lot,
He's granted me to leave me, so I'll fight with all my might,
I've entered in His service, a soldier
I have to be,
And though all hell assail me, I'll still keep true to Thee.

I'll follow in Thy footprints, though it should be my lot,
To live for Christ in gladness, to die
He would be great gain,
And though all friends forsake me, yet
I'll never be alone,
Oh Lord, what e'er befall me, I'll still
keep true to Thee.

7 My Experience.

BY SMO. SERG. CHAMBERS, MONTREAL, I.L.

Tune:—"Champagne Charlie."

"My life was full of sinfulness, my heart was never saved;
I never could find peace that really made me glad;

But then the Army came along and I found how God was always with me;
They saved him too back home the truth as they sang this little song:

"O yes there's Salvation for you, etc."
They told how God had saved them,
From misery and woe,
And said if I did not repent, to hell I sure would go;
I felt my lot condition, but still could not give in,
But they did not give over, but sang another hymn.

"O happy rest, etc."

One night I came to Jesus, and let
the devil go,
He did not say I was too vile, or cast
me out, oh no;
Praise God, He nicely saved me through
and through,
And what the devil tempts me, this is
all I have to do.

"I know your heart is often grieved—

I'm always close at hand!"

8 There's a Better Day Coming.

BY ALICE MORTON.

Tune:—"The girl I left behind me."

"One night I came to Jesus, and let
the devil go,
He did not say I was too vile, or cast
me out, oh no;
Praise God, He nicely saved me through
and through,
And what the devil tempts me, this is
all I have to do.

"I know your heart is often grieved—
(The loving Saviour speaking)
"By His love never have I been
deceived—
I'm always close at hand!"

"My strength and grace are always at
thy side,
Through all the darkest Thine will be
my guide,
Or, the soldier may sing:
Thy strength and grace are always at
my side,
Thou wilt never, never leave me;
Through all the darkest Thine will be
my guide,
And give me victory.

"I know your heart is often grieved—
(The loving Saviour speaking)
"By His love never have I been
deceived—
I'm always close at hand!"

"My wisdom plans out all your days—
(Listen to the Saviour speaking)
"My hand shall open all your ways—
I'm always close at hand!"

"When through the host of hell you
fight,
(The conquering Saviour speaking)
"My power shall put them all to flight,
I'm always close at hand!"

"When heavy burdens on these weigh
(The Mighty Saviour speaking)
"My strength I'll give thee day by
day,
I'm always close at hand!"

10 The Salvation Army.

We've often told how God was always
with us,
For Satan tried to burn us,
He held us long,
But we were saved;
Some say we were Quoted out of place,
They do not like our hymns,
I hope to have,
They do decide,
With this red ribbon on it.
